Carol Anne Taylor is the Director of Children's Choirs, Carillonneur, and Organist at the Cathedral Shrine of the Virgin of Guadalupe in Dallas, Texas. She received the Bachelor of Church Music with Piano and Organ Concentration from Louisiana College in Pineville, Louisiana. Ms. Taylor earned the Master of Music in Organ Performance at the University of North Texas in 1996 where she studied with Jesse Eschbach and Madame Marie-Madeleine Duruflé-Chevalier.

She studies carillon with George Gregory, Organist and Carillonneur at Central Christian Church in San Antonio, Texas. In June 2008 at Berkeley, California, Ms. Taylor was voted to be a Carillonneur member of the Guild of Carillonneurs of North America by completing the advancement examination process which culminated with a performance for a jury panel and members of the Guild. She also received the Ronald Barnes Memorial Scholarship to study carillon performance with William De Turk at the Bok Tower Gardens in Lakes Wales, Florida.

Ms. Taylor enjoys making jewelry, spending time with her mini macaw, Sebastian, and running marathons.
