Dear Friend,

Since its inception in 1974, the University of Florida, Friends of Music has played a critical role in support of the UF School of Music programs and students. Our organization maintains a commitment to excellence in artistic education at UF. I am honored to serve as President this year.

The UF School of Music produces the largest number of musical productions in our region and is a pillar in the cultural fabric and quality of life in our community. As an arts educator in the K-12 Alachua County public school system, I can testify that the School of Music provides services that tremendously benefit the education of our community youth, and as a citizen I see the breadth of positive impacts these resources have on our families, workforce and economy, tourism, enjoyment of life and identity as a community.

Each spring, the Friends of Music hold a benefit to raise financial support for the UF School of Music programs and scholarships that assist students. Through this fun and exciting gathering on February 10, 2012 at the Steinbrenner Band Hall, you or your organization can join in our effort to nurture this community treasure.

The Friends of Music Spring Gala is anticipated annually by our community. This year's event will offer an opportunity to dance to the sounds of our local stars—the talented and nationally renowned faculty of the UF School of Music! Attendees will enjoy wine and hors d'oeuvres, dancing, and musical repertoire selected to inspire dancing while transporting us through time, across cultures and continents, and highlighting numerous styles of music! Renowned local event coordinator Keith Watson will set the stage with a memorable atmosphere.

Can we count on you for support?

Please consider becoming a sponsor of this year's event. We have attached a list of sponsorship levels—each provides recognition for you or your business, and gives you the chance to be a Friend of Music!

Eager to assist you and welcome you among our sponsors, Andy Howard, Manager of Alumni Affairs and Marketing at the College of Fine Arts (352-273-1489), or I (352-222-3699) can discuss any questions you may have regarding the event, the school or your sponsorship.

I am proud to represent the Friends of Music, and on their behalf, I thank you for your consideration of this request. Please save the date to join us on February 10, 2012. We look forward to seeing you there!

Sincerely,

Angie Terrell
President
